

Sheep Tales Tutorials

Learn traditional knitting skills in a supportive and friendly environment. Absolute beginners to advanced.

Mavis Clark, professional Shetland lace knitter of 30 years+ experience passes on the once-widespread skills of knitted lace, fair isle, fisherman's ganseys and other historic skills based on use of real British wool.

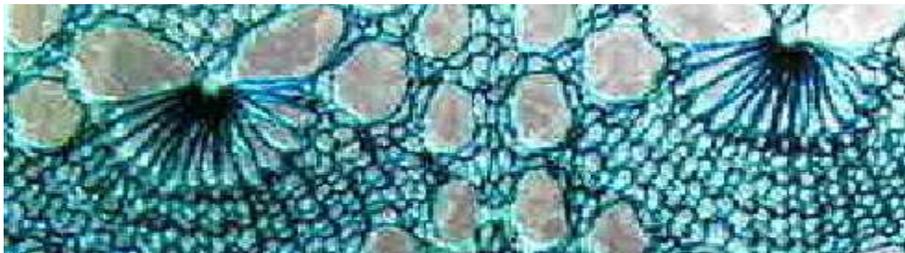

As recently featured in the Knitter magazine, Mavis will help you knit any traditional pattern of your choice.

Own project classes still running to end of 2018. Themed taster workshops available throughout 2019. Yarn provided, bring your own needles. (Or bring any project you need help with!)

Pre-booking essential. £35 per class including wool for project. £100 if booking for whole year, plus cost of wool pack per class.

Supported by SheepTales.org Dedicated to keeping Border fibre heritage alive.

Sheep Tales Programme 2019

- |              |   |
|--------------|---|
| 26 January   | Taste of Fair Isle—Fingerless mitts     |
| 23 February  | Hen egg cosy—fair isle, vintage or fun  |
| 30 March     | Gansey techniques—Teddy's gansey        |
| 27 April     | Fair Isle—Tea cosy                      |
| 18 May       | Sock techniques—Childrens' socks        |
| 29 June      | Shetland lace 2-ply—Shell pattern scarf |
| 27 July      | Gansey techniques—Teddy's gansey        |
| 31 August    | Sock techniques—Children's socks        |
| 28 September | Fair Isle—boot topper                   |
| 26 October   | Cobweb lace—Scarf                       |
| 30 November  | Christmas decorations                   |

Discover heritage knitting skills in the mediaeval sheep town of Wooler — Venue to be announced.

Now booking. Contact Mavis :

01668 281 884
mavisclark@talktalk.net

